Say hello man you know she's great
I do all that I can though I somnambulate
I'm alright
I've been governed by a lover that I never could alter Concined I'd discover a new world order of light

It goes dark
It goes dark
It goes dark

I suffer from a lack of concentration (I just can't seem to concentrate) Still got faith in my generation (I hope you're coming and won't be late) My brain's just tuned to a different station (my brain's all tuned to a different state)
And I miss you
I miss you
I miss you

Say hello man you know she's great
I do all that I can though I somnambulate
I'm alright
I got something over here
Something over there Oh it's lucky we can breathe 'cause there's something in the air tonight

It goes dark
It goes dark
It goes dark

I suffer from a lack of concentration (I just can't seem to concentrate)
and won't be late)
My brain's just tuned to a different station (my brain's
all tuned to a different state)
And I miss you
I miss you
I miss you

It goes dark
It goes dark
It goes dark
Well

I suffer from a lack of concentration (I just can't seem to concentrate)
and won't be late)
My brain's just tuned to a different station (my brain's
all tuned to a different state)
And I miss you
I miss you
I miss you
