Take a left motherfucker

[Chorus]

You aint ever been down this road before, You aint ever seen a J running with no clothes, Grandmama beat the switches where the air wind rolls, Sold a sack in the culdasack down that road

Take a left motherfucker

[Chorus]

You aint ever been down this road before, You aint ever seen a J running with no clothes, Grandmama beat the switches where the air wind rolls, Sold a sack in the culdasack down that road

Catfish belly, aint it Bizarre tho? Country motherfucker yup. I got a Carlo, got a 30 pack of bud in this Monte Carlo. And I'm macking this slut who got an ass like a barn door. I told her I'll give her the stick for a carton of marlboro's. My boy said I'm tripping, but she looked at it its charm tho. What a mystic man I am with this hard flow. Like creekwater we harder than a cat trying to dart tho. Chevy's in the back barretta's click clack. Mullets in the starter jack your baby in the day. Gave my mama keys to a 1980 lac'. She let her boyfriend see it and we never got it back. Fuck it, it's a bucket. A bullet's in budget, I'll just go back to cookie cutting and reach under the rug and pull out a sack of bud, and hit my buddy up for a nutty butty. It's all in the family, and I mean family by cousin's. And we sitting in a fucking beanbag, on the front porch swinging lean back. Big truck riding never clean that, buckshot signs you aint ever seen that.

[Chorus]

You aint ever been down this road before. You aint ever seen a J running with no clothes. Grandmama beat the switches where the air wind rolls. Sold a sack in the culdasack down that road.

Take a left motherfucker

[Chorus]

You aint ever been down this road before. You aint ever seen a J running with no clothes. Grandmama beat the switches where the air wind rolls. Sold a sack in the culdasack down that road.

75 north an hour from Toledo. Blue chevy's big body Regal's. Hammerton tuxedo, home of HKiller raised by lions, tigers, gorrilla's. Red Magnum, Helicopter doors. Big potholes will fuck up your 24's. Detroit, Michigan where people dont care no more. Chrysler and Ford plant they aint there no more.20/20 vision make the wrong decisions. Get 5 to 10 and Jack's in prison.Abandoned homes, drug dealers, crack addicts, lot a white boys, but aint none be Rabbit. I gotta have it blowing that kush. Car starter out I need that push. The home of the purple gang and the home of Coleman Young. Detroit, Michigan great place not to come.

[Chorus]

You aint ever been down this road before, you aint ever seen a J running with no clothes. Grandmama beat the switches where the air wind rolls. Sold a sack in the culdasack down that road.

Take a left motherfucker

[Chorus]

You aint ever been down this road before, you aint ever seen a J running with no clothes. Grandmama beat the switches where the air wind rolls. Sold a sack in the culdasack down that road.
