I don't want to be here
But I need to be here
I really wish that I could
I really feel the need to

Let my body go, let my feelings show
Here comes another worn out
Here comes another burned out
Here comes another bleeding soul

Bleeding soul

Here comes another worn out
Here comes another burned out
Here comes another bleeding soul

I don't need to kiss it
I don't need to touch it
I really wish that I could
I really feel the need to

Let my body go, let my feelings show
Here comes another worn out
Here comes another burned out
Here comes another bleeding soul

Bleeding soul

Let my body go, let my feelings show
Here comes another worn out
Here comes another burned out
Here comes another bleeding soul

Bleeding soul

Here comes another worn out
Here comes another sold out
Here comes another bleeding soul
