This is the end of,
The end of beginning is here.
That's what they told us for thousands of years.
Why would you not believe?

Were these the last days you live
I'd hope you could simply forgive
Not that you want to
But you realize you have to.

In the end it's not so bad
If you end up there with me
The conclusion's not yet here.
So there's nothing left to fear.
(No) That's what they love to hear.

As the curtains close on our life time,
There's one thing that's ever persuasive,
As we hand down our possessions,
We move on to forever

In the end it's not so bad
If you end up there with me
The conclusion's not yet here.
So there's nothing left to fear.
(No) That's what they love to hear.

I tell you by the fire
There are choices to be made
Immovable in pride
Your existence will remain
Under your control

In the end it's not so bad
If you end up there with me
The conclusion's not yet here.
So there's nothing left to fear.
(No) That's what they love to hear.
