I see you lying there
Lying on the floor
I wonder if I'll go back to the way before
Now you're standing here
Looking right through me
Think that now we'll see eye to eye

Chorus:

Running, running back to me
Tripping, on your knees and babbling
Spinning, throw you back behind me
Running back, running back to me

Now you don't know why
I can't even look at you
If you only knew
Reasons why we don't sleep
You didn't take the time
And now we're through

Chorus:

Running, running back to me
Tripping, on your knees and babbling
Spinning, throw you back behind me
Running back, running back to me

REPEAT CHORUS

Running back
Running back
Running back
Running back to me
