"When Heaven Comes Down"

Total confusion, one final sin
Someone's religion and greed
Accidents happen, someone to blame
Who's got the answers we need?

I don't know who to believe
But I know who's gonna set me free
'Cause I'll be waiting
When Heaven comes down

Ashes to ashes, sorrow and shame
Look at the future again
Angels in Heaven are walking the streets
Searching for someone to blame

I don't know who to believe
But I know who's gonna set me free
'Cause I'll be waiting
When Heaven comes down
Until tomorrow
When Heaven comes down

'Cause I'll be waiting
When Heaven comes down
Until tomorrow
When Heaven comes down

I'll be waiting
When Heaven comes down
Until tomorrow
When Heaven comes down
