Tried to go to sleep last night
But too many things were in my head
Then the sun began to rise
Still I haven't gone to bed

Why do all these questions
Dance around inside my head
All I want to do
Is close my eyes and go to bed

Let tomorrow bring the answers
That I need instead
And let it go, let it go

Is there anybody who believes
That the questions and the answers
Will come easily?
And this sadness that I felt
Will finally set me free
Set me free, set me free

Hope that I can sleep tonight
Close my eyes and slip away
Dream about some other place
Where the sun shines in my head

Out of all the people in my life, I love you more
And I hope that time will find
A way to make it sure
That we stay one and the same

Is there anybody who believes
That the questions and the answers
Will come easily?
And this sadness that I felt
Will finally set me free
Set me free, set me free

You're the only person in my life
And I hope that time will find
A way to make it right
And whatever happens you will know, I love you more

Is there anybody who believes
That the questions and the answers
Will come easily?
And this sadness that I felt
Will finally set me free
Set me free, set me free
