How can I tell what I'm feeling

Are you really here or am I dreaming

I've waited so long to find you

I can tell by your touch

We both believe

It must be this time

It must be this time

All that I hear is your heartbeat

And the world disappears

When our eyes meet

I've waited so long to find you

So don't let me go

I want this night to last forever

So love me slowly

Just let go

Love me slowly

And give our hearts

The time to grow

The time to grow

All that I hear is your heartbeat

And the world disappears
When our eyes meet
I've waited so long to find you
I can tell by your touch
We both believe it must be this time
So love me slowly
Just let go
Love me slowly
And give our hearts
The time to grow
Repeat
