Michael St. James)

I love you more than I can say
Sometimes the words get in the way
Nothing seems the same
No one can take the blame
I can hardly breath
The heat is getting to me
Wave goodbye to responsibility
I whisper your name to the breeze

Chorus

We walked in love at least we tried
We walked in love how high's the sky
We walked in love please don't cry
We walked in love this is goodbye

And I really don't know why

Maybe in another time
The poem may have rhyme
Watch the tears track down the pain
Washed away by the rain

Repeat chorus

And I really don't know why

Repeat chorus to fade
