"Hard To Say Goodbye"

Visit "Hard To Say Goodbye" on MotoLyrics.com

Johnny put a shotgun to his head
Rolled the dice and dead
Late to say you're sorry
Living on the edge for much too long
Tried to carry on
Hunting down the glory

Say it will be sunshine after rain u-hu
I wonder if something stays the same u-hu
Close your eyes, and dream your life away

Hard to say goodbye
Spread your wings and fly
Hard to say goodbye
When we've just said hello
Somewhere down highway 55
Pulled up to the side
That's the end of story
Your body gets out of here alive
Some live for the pride
And some live for the glory

They say there will be sunshine after rain
Wonder if something stays the same
Close your eyes and dream your life away

It's hard to say goodbye
Spread your wings and fly
Hard to say goodbye
When we've just said hello
