(Bill Owens)

Love is only as strong as your weakest moment
And in that moment of weakness anyone can do wrong
Oh, weak woman, like a crooked river
Follows a path of least resistance
I went in the wrong place at the right time
Where I didn't have any business
Temptation overcame me and now I
I'm ashamed of me
But how can I ask the one I love
For his forgiveness

Love is only as strong as your weakest moment
And in that moment of weakness
Anyone can go wrong
