there i was the girl that you love to hate but hate to love alone i guess you might say yes i was and there you were giving me love enough for any girl to understand this girl couldn't see

chorus:

i was the same old fool but in any fantasy same old fool with the same old dream still the same old me show me have life can be now the same old fool has got a brand new dream one more chance is all that i ever need 'cause you gave to me a shred of hope more than most receive and here i am now that i finally, finally, finally found what real love means this brand new dream won't end repeat chorus

instrumental break

repeat chorus to fade out
