As you walk away
As we say goodbye
What I wouldn't give
For a tender lie

Say you'll never stop lovin' me
Just as if it were true
How much more damage now, honestly
Could one tender lie do?

When we fall so far
Are we wrong to try
To fight off the truth
With a tender lie

Say you're gonna come back to me
And I'll believe that it's true
How much more damage now, honestly
Could one tender lie do?

When we loved before
Do you still deny
Keeping out the truth
With a tender lie?

Say you'll never stop lovin' me
Just as if it were true
How much more damage now, honestly
Could one tender lie do?

How much more damage now, honestly
Could one tender lie do?
