Two people, together
It was just a dream until you came along
My heart was waiting just for you

Tomorrow, forever
We both heard these promises for far too long
And now you make the words come true

So touch me now
I need to have you close tonight
And show me how
You can me feel this way

you and me, we are the right combination
For love, we're all we need
It's just you and me, we make the right combination
Straight from the heart, love is the key

Can't keep it, a secret
Everything I feel is written on my face
I can't hide my heart from you

You hold me, is magic
In your arms the world becomes a better place
Now I know what love can do

Here we go
Exactly where the road will lead us
I don't know
I just know that you'll be there

you and me, we are the right combination
For love, we're all we need
It's just you and me, we make the right combination
Straight from the heart, love is the key

And whenever you, I'm there
Every stumble and fall, I share
I'll be yours through it all
Coz I care, about you baby

It's so easy to see, so strong

Now I know you and me, belong
I'll be by your side forever....

you and me, we are the right combination
For love, we're all we need
It's just you and me, we make the right combination
Straight from the heart, love is the key
