We Irish love to sing
We Irish love to dance
We Irish love to party
Whener? we get the chance
We have a lot of troubles
But we have a pint of Guinness
And forget about our woes
Ei-ee-ei, ei-ee-ei, we Irish are the best
We love our myths and stories
We love a mournful song
We love our joyful music
And a good old sing-a-long
We love our pennuwhistle
Uilleann pipes and air bodhran
We Irish love our football
Our heros and our homes

Repeat Chorus

We Irish love St. Patty
We love to celebrate
And nothing suits us better than
An all-out green parade
Green beer and hate and jackets
Green dresses, shirts and ties

And nothing could be brighter
Than the light in Irish eyes
We got a pub on every corner
And a church to worship in
We party hard the pray the Lord
Forgive us of our sins
We rid ourselves of grief and guilt
Relieve our trouble hearts
I know God loves the Irish
And accepts us as we are

Repeat Chorus
