(Dolly Parton)

You say that you're bored with life and that you're bored with me
'Cause you say that this love of ours ain't what it ought to be Now you despise this little house that we've always called home
I know that you don't love me now, but you'll love me when I'm gone
Gone
You'll love me when I'm gone and then you'll realize just what I meant to you
You-oo-oo-oo
You'll miss me when I'm gone and then you'll realize how good I've been to you
You-ooo-ooo-ooo
You'll want me when I'm gone and then you'll realize you've loved me all along Oh, it's true you may not love me now, but you'll love me when I'm gone
Gone

We've grown too familiar with each other, so you say

You say there's no excitement now. Too bad you feel that way
Well, I wonder how exciting that your life will be alone Oh, I know you may not want me now, but you'll miss
me when I'm gone
Gone

You'll love me when I'm gone and then you'll realize
just what I meant to you
You-oo-oo-oo
You'll miss me when I'm gone and then you'll realize
how good I've been to you
You-ooo-ooo-ooo
You'll want me when I'm gone and then you'll realize
you've loved me all along
me when I'm gone

Gone
