Oh no, you've really done it now
Uh-oh, you've gone and got found out
Oh no, what you done here?
It's all such a mess
In the kitchen, on the table - it's not their first time

Now you've been staying out
But still, I didn't want to doubt
Phone rings, you look uneasy
Take the call upstairs
In our bedroom, with the door shut, it's not the first time

Sometimes love just ain't enough
Now I'm so very over you
Sometimes love ain't enough
To deal with what you put me through
Though its taken me a while to realize what you've
done to me
Sometimes love ain't enough
So you should just get over me

But when I said we're having problems,
You didn't want to hear it
And when I said I wanted some
You just didn't want to give it
You're too right, I cheated
Couldn't get from you what I needed
Now you're banging about this girl
And I just don't wanna hear it

Someday, your child's here with me
Crying into her cup of tea
Feeling used and dirty
She looks down and guilty
At the table, in the kitchen, where it was her first time

Sometimes love just ain't enough
Now I'm so very over you
Sometimes love ain't enough
To deal with what you put me through

Though its taken me a while to realize what you've
done to me
Sometimes love ain't enough
So you should just get over me

Ok, ok, ok
It's over then,
Baby mama's got a one sided argument
Going around in the same circles again
You're accusing me of sleeping with another chica again
Give me a chance to explain myself,
Clear my name, and unshame myself
If I can't, I'ma still try my best
If you just lower the string I'll unhang myself
First, you were thinking I was hanging with Jane
No, no other chicks just me and my best man
And if you don't believe that, then I don't know what to say
Truth or lying, I'm still going to be cheating the same
Maybe I did sleep with another chick,
Maybe it was nice, maybe I liked it
Maybe she was extra fit, and had nice tits
A J-Lo ass and some Jolie lips
But there was no other chick,
And nothing happened when you're saying it did
I'm telling the truth, I ain't lying about it
But I guess you don't believe me
And I'm just shoddy shit

Sometimes love just ain't enough
Now I'm so very over you
Sometimes love ain't enough
To deal with what you put me through
Though its taken me a while to realize what you've
done to me
Sometimes love ain't enough
So you should just get over me
