Backstage at the Troubadour
Got my bass on ready to go
And I don't care if there are celebrities at the show Motivation exploitation empty to the very core
You're a porn star rock star
6 of one 1/2 dozen of the other
I'm not trying to be famous
F-U-F-A-M-O-U-S
I'm not trying to be famous
Not my style Cause it makes me sick I'm sorry if I'm not impressed with glitz and glitter
Some tabloid Hollywood disaster
VIP's red carpets just everything about it
I want something more
Not trying to be famous
Don't give me a vacant future I got things I wanna say
Don't care if you like it hate it
To me it's just the same Superficial when you'd kill for pretty things you can't afford
You're a monster under Makeup and designer clothes
Sounds like a nightmare
Why would you want that You're outta your gourd man
No effing way
I'm sorry if not impressed with glitz and glitter
You burnout Hollywood disaster
Chewed up by the system
Another fashion victim
We want something more
