We made our vows
And you walked away from me
And you said
It was all because of me

Why don't you take the blame
And realize you were at fault
When you said those words to me
Yeah

You will remember
You will remember me
When someone walks into your life
And breaks your heart so deep inside
You Will Remember
You will remember me
This ain't a myth or trality
What you did to me will come to you
Then you will remember me

And now all I do is hurt inside
When I remember
When you said "I don't love you"
And As the days go by
All that's on my mind
Is that you walked away
when I needed someone true

You will remember
You will remember me
When someone walks into your life
And breaks your heart so deep inside
You Will Remember
You will remember me
This ain't a myth or trality

What you did to me will come to you
Then you will remember me

You will remember
You will remember me
When someone walks into your life
And breaks your heart so deep inside
You Will Remember
You will remember me
This ain't a myth or trality
What you did to me will come to you
Then you will remember me
