To the netherlands trek
For solitude she was warm
Lady in black
Walks alone
Nobody cares
Rewrite this name, this world
Her heart is gone down
Loneliness...cold

Lost in dreams of love
You cry for the rain
Silent grief
Like a star you drown
In prayers in vain
But do you believe?
You still believe

Nobody knows
This road
Her brilliant tears' trail
Only wind blows
Through undrilled holes
Era of drinking your own tale
