Running through the night
And it drives me down
I decide to take control in your mind
Waiting for the start
I swear to reach your heart
The master of your freedom and your pride

I will take you away my love
And you see your salvation around you
Running for light, right out of
Will you have me inside you, I love you

Runaway - Is the only way
Runaway - You can stay

Running through the night
I can bring you the light
I decide to take control in your mind
For you I will fight
And die upon your side
Give me your soul
And take mine
