Everytime my castles tumble
Everytime I'm feeling blue
You touch my hand and I understand
I'm still a king to you

Every, every time
My dreams are shattered
Every time they don't come true
You look at me and my heart can see
I'm still a king to you

Broken dreams can be mended
Castles can be built again
I'll go on trying forever
If you're besides me til then

Every, every time
My friends forsake me
Every time they say I'm through
I know they're wrong, I'll get along
I'm still a king to you

Every time that they forsake me
Every time they say I'm through
I'll get by, I'm a lucky guy
I'm still a king to you
