It's wet in the middle
With a shell around it
It's called life

It goes wherever it wants to
Don't try to predict it
Then you'd offend it
It's meant to surprise

Nature is ancient
But surprises us all
Nature is ancient
But surprises us all

Rescue me
From level-head-ness
The unnecessary luxury of being calm

Nature is ancient
But surprises us all
Nature is ancient
But surprises us all

She's got dark hairs on her head
Blonde on her arms
She sneaks up from behind
Come on, you deserve it

Nature is ancient
But surprises us all
