One day It will happen One day It will all come true

One day When you're ready One day The false in to place

The atmosphere Will get lighter And two suns ready To shine just for you

I can feel it I can feel it

One day Will get lighter One day It will all come true

One day It will happen One day It will all come true

An aeroplane Will curve gracefully Around the volcano With the eruption that never lets you down

I can feel it I can feel it

And the beautifulness Fireworks will burn in In the sky Ooh just for you

I can feel it

One day
