While you are away
My heart comes undone
It slowly unravels in a ball of yarn
Devil collects it with a grin
Our love in a ball of yarn

Never return it
(When you come back)
We'll have to make new love

He'll never return it
(When you come back)
We'll have to make new love

He'll never return it
(When you come back)
We'll have to make new love

He'll never return it
(When you come back)
We'll have to make new love

When you come back
We'll have to make new love
When you come back
We'll have to make new love

When you come back
We'll have to make new love
When you come back
We'll have to make new love

When you come back
We'll have to make new love
When you come back
We'll have to make new love
