The sun was fading, the smell of love in the air
When I passed her I knew something was there Tried to catch her but she got lost in the crowd Tried to call her but the music was loud Checked out the tables, the people on the dance floor
I searched my memory for the clothes that she wore A yellow sweater and some faded blue jeans Dingy sneakers and expensive earrings Just like a detective and that was my evidence that she existed, that she was in present tense
She had caught me like a fish in a net
She didn't know it, she hadn't checked her catch yet (She didn't yet)
Just right for tonight, so young and so hot Don't care if it takes all the money I've got Ain't got the time, got nothing to say but I'll lie awake
and think about her someday

The club was closing, the bouncer told me to go
I was reluctant and I politely said so He grabbed my shoulder and threw me right through the door
I hollered "Thank you!", he called my mother a whore It'd been a bad night, it shouldn't end up like this It'd been a bad night, I needed someone to kiss
Then just like magic, as I was rubbing my head
I heard some laughter and then a gentle voice said,
"Come on get up, been trying to find you all night"
I saw her smiling as she walked into the light
She held her hand out and we both started to grin We had that one night, I never saw her again, never saw her again
Just right for tonight, so young and so hot
Don't care if it takes all the money I've got Ain't got the time, got nothing to say but I'll lie awake
and think about her someday, alright

Don't you know, (Just right, just right) she's just right for tonight, so young and so hot Don't care what kind of future we got Ain't got no time, got nothing to say but I'll lie awake
and think about her someday

(Just right, just right) Just right for tonight, so young and so hot
Don't care what kind of future we got Ain't got no time, got nothing to say but I'll lie awake
and think about that girl someday
(Just right, just right) Just right for tonight
She got, no, got no future; I'm thinking, future in sight
Ain't got no time, got nothing to say but I'll lie awake
and think about that girl someday
She got, she got, she got, she got, what I need tonight Got nothing to say but I'll lie awake and think about that girl someday (Just right, just right) Just hold on Just love, just hot mamma, gonna feel alright Got no time, got nothing to say but I'll lie awake and kiss some of that girl someday (Just right, just right) Just right for tonight, you're so (It's so hot, I know you care)
