Every heart on the steal, hide behind your lips
You could spark the ancient feelings from your finger tips
Silent dreams on the war but heaven is in my building
Two more dinks of alcohol could turn my knees to jelly
I always knew the time would come, cracked and faded
in the sun
I press my lips against the gun and whisper goodbye Heaven must have sent you to me [?], [?] down and grabbed [?] my sentence to me [?]
I can hear a million angels sigh (I can hear a million angels sigh) (A million)

Open mouth, open chest, hearts with woes around them
Tiny hands, sweet caress, heaven must have found
Tired eyes, time to pray, street with casket robbers Stupid dreams, mid life phase, sold to shopping mothers
I always knew the time would come, cracked and faded
in the sun
I press my lips against the gun and whisper goodbye
Heaven must have sent you to me [?],[?] down and
grabbed??? my sentence to me [?]
I can hear a million angels sigh (I can hear) (Oh my oh my, oh my oh my)
(A million) angels, (A million) angels, (A million) angels, (A million) angels, (A million) angels, (A million)

I can hear a million angels sigh
