You look, talk??? and test the bed rules, can he,
pictures with a globe???

Loose??? the bonnet, fancy??? feelings, seem to swell up down below

??? Only caught the shorts and teddies???, open house with ocean view

Seeming like you're almost family, 'till the message crashes trough

Pick your boyfriend with precision, like you choose a truck or van

Put your ear up to the engine, test out every thing again
(Test out every thing again)

Check the pressure of the oil; check the firmness of the seat

Look for cracks and spots and pit-marks, make sure nothing's obsolete

His mileage meter that you're reading, has it been certified as true

Poke those headlight pointed at you, buys until you go want something (Used)

Pick your boyfriend with precision, like you choose a truck or van

Put your ear up to the engine, test out every thing again
(Test out every thing again)

??? On an even Sunday drill???, you push the beauty of the girl

You look out on a sale agreed and wonder if it's just a dream

(Pick your boyfriend with precision) Pick your boyfriend with precision

(Like you choose a truck or van) Like you choose a truck or van

(Put your ear up to the engine) Put your ear onto the engine

(Test out every thing again) Test out every thing again

Holy mother of invention, necessity of girl and boy

??? Is all the rating on the table???, has got you it's own just reward

Keep that condom in your pocket, and hold out 'til the bells have???

Won't come easy for a youngster, trust me, I know how it feels

Pick your boyfriend with precision, like you choose a truck or van

Put your ear up to the engine, test out every thing again (Check out, check out)

Pick your boyfriend with precision, like you choose a truck or van

Put your ear up to the engine, test out every thing again
(Test out every thing again)

Test out every thing again (Test out every thing again)

Test out every thing again (Test out every thing again)

Test out, test out every thing again (Test out every thing again)

Test out every thing again
