I woke up; my tears were all in vain
The sunshine was your only friend so I began to feel like rain

I was dreaming of an ocean, lit by??? silver??? from the sky Rolling in the sound of thunder, broke the magic of the night
I saw the sky all clouded over, I wish and turning into the light
I looked back to see you drowning, caught up in the???
Midas love???
Then I woke up, the tears were all in vain
like rain

I try to dry, to reach out to you but I was scared that I might die
What kind of man would watch such beauty wash out with the rain and die?
I feel the feelings of the dieing
I breathe the breath of new born life
I dry the tears of loves lost lesson Kiss the lips of death tonight
Then I woke up, the tears were all in vain
like rain

Josephine, can you forgive me and overlook my foolish dream?
I was once a lonely drifter, I do not understand these things
I sleep the sleep of dieing embers
I think the thoughts of living gods Love the love of all the angels Give the gift of second births
'Cause I woke up, the tears were all in vain
The sunshine was your only friend so I began to feel
like rain
Yes I woke up; the tears were all in vain
The sunshine was your only friend so I began to feel like rain, feel like rain

I began to feel like rain, began to feel like rain
