Read in the paper nearly day
People breakin' up and just walkin' away
From love and that's wrong
That's so wrong

A happy little home comes up for sale
Because two fools have tried
And failed to get along
And ya know that's wrong

A man hurts a woman and a woman hurts a man
When neither one of them will love and understand
And take it with a grain of salt
Oh, now believe that

A little bit of love is better than no love
Even the bad love is better than no love
And even the sad love is better than no love at all
Got to believe that

A little bit of love is better than no love
Even the bad love is better than no love
And any kind of love is better than no love at all

No love at all is a poor old man
Standin' on the corner
With his hat in his hand
And no place to go, and he's feelin' low

And no love at all is a child in the street
Dodgin' traffic and beggin'
To eat on a tenement row
And that's a long row to hoe

No love at all is a troubled young girl
Standin' on a bridge at the end of the world
And it's a pretty short fall
Now people believe me

A little bit of love is better than no love
Even the bad love is better than no love
And even the sad love is better than no love at all

Got to believe that

A little bit of love is better than no love
Even the bad love is better than no love
And any kind of love is better than no love at all

And oh, now you got to believe me

A little bit of love is better than no love
Even the bad love is better than no love
And even the sad is better than no love at all
Got to believe me

A little bit of love is better than no love
Even the bad love is better than no love
And any kind of love is better than no love at all
Oh, now believe

A little bit of love is better than no love
Even the bad love is better than no love
And any kind of love is better than no love at all
Oh

A little bit of love is better than no love
Even the bad love is better than no love
And any kind of love is better than no love at all
Oh, now believe

A little bit of love is better than no love
Even the bad love is better than no love
