You must be a lost angel, dressed to your silk legs
Born somewhere between heaven, hell
I don't know what place
Yes, I can tell that you've cast your spell,
The way you hold me, somehow
If this is sin, Baby count me in, I can't turn back now

I've got to have all of you,
Little Darlin'
All of your lovin', all of your huggin', all of your kisses
too
I've got to have all of you
Every day, in every way now, no one else will do

Now, I've been told that it's ages old,
Goes back to Adam and Eve
Yes I know how the story goes,
When a woman begins to deceive
Now here you stand, before my naked eyes,
My heart is pounding so
If I should die darlin' in your arms,
What a lovely way to go

I've got to have all of you,
Little Darlin'
All of your lovin', all of your huggin', all of your kisses
I've got to have all of you
Every day, in every way, now, no one else will do
