Start it on up hey let's cruise a while
Leave Your troubles far behind
You can hedge your bet on a clean corvette
To get you there right on time
Now if you're ready to dive into overdrive
Baby the green lights are on
It's like you're runnin away on some high octane
Every time she reaches for the goal

Won't you take a ride, ride, ride, ride
On heavy metal
It's the only way that you can travel
Down that road
Satisfied, 'fied, 'fied, 'fied
On heavy metal
Baby won't you ride
Ride it until it explodes
Heavy Metal

My oh my how this lady can fly
Once she starts rollin' beneath you
You know you just can't lose the way she moves

You wait for her to finally release you
It's not a big surprise to feel your temperature rise
You've gotta touch of redline fever
'Cause there is just one cure that they know for sure
You just become a heavy metal believer

Won't you take a ride, ride, ride, ride
On heavy metal
It's the only way that you can travel
Down that road
Satisfied, 'fied, 'fied, 'fied
On heavy metal
Baby won't you ride
Ride it until it explodes
