If you gave me half a reason
I would tell you what is true
But no matter how you listen
There's nothing I could do
To make you see with just your mind
Until the day you step across the line

No explanation could tell you what I've seen
There's no way to paint a picture
That could show you what I mean
When I say I left the man I was behind
And found another world across the line

You gotta take a step across the line
Let Jesus fill your heart and mind
I can show you where to look
But you've got to seek to find
You got to take a step across the line

An invitation is the best that I can do to change your future til forever and the rest is up to you you can take his hand, or keep on going blind
He waits for you to step across the line

You gotta take a step across the line
Let Jesus fill your heart and mind
I can show you where to look
But you've got to seek to find
You got to take a step across the line

You gotta take a step...
