Prayer is the key to Heaven
But faith unlocks the door
Words are so easily spoken
Prayer without faith
Is like a boat without an oar

How faith when you speak to the Master
That's all He asks you for
Prayer is the key to Heaven

But faith unlocks the door

Prayer is the key to Heaven
But faith unlocks the door
Words are so easily spoken
Prayer without faith
Is like a boat without an oar

How faith when you speak to the Master
That's all He asks you for
Prayer is the key to Heaven
But faith unlocks the door
