It's too soon to know if I can forget her
My heart's been broken in too many pieces
And it's too soon to know

Time passes slow, will I ever know
If I can forget her and not let it show?
It's too soon to know

News travels fast when love affair ends

People keep asking what happened to them

But it's too soon to know if I can forget her
My heart's been broken in too many pieces
And it's too soon to know

My heart's been broken in too many pieces
And it's too soon to know
