Starry starry night
paint your palette blue and grey look out on a summer's day with eyes that know the darkness in my soul Shadows on the hills sketch the trees and the daffodils catch the breeze and the winter chills in colors on the snowy linen land

And now I understand what you tried to say to me how you suffered for your sanity how you tried to set them free They would not listen they did not know how perhaps they'll listen now

flaming flowers that brightly blaze swirling clouds in violet haze reflect in Vincent's eyes of China blue Colors changing hue morning fields of amber grain weathered faces lined in pain are soothed beneath the artist's loving hand

And now I understand

For they could not love you but still your love was true

And when no hope was left in sight on that starry starry night You took your life as lovers often do But I could have told you, Vincent this world was never meant for one as beautiful as you

portraits hung in empty halls frameless heads on nameless walls with eyes that watch the world and can't forget Like the stranger that you've met the ragged men in ragged clothes the silver thorn of bloody rose lie crushed and broken on the virgin snow

And now I think I know
what you tried to say to me
how you tried to set them free
they're not listening still perhaps they never will
