Mo chara is mo lao thu!
My friend and my calf
Is aisling trÃ©allaibh
A vision in dream
Do deineadh arÃ©ir dom
Was revealed to me last night
Igcorcaigh go dÃ©anach
In cork, a late hour,
Ar leaba im aonar
In my solitary bed
I remember you back in the gpo with connolly and clarke Laughin' with mcdermott through the bullets and the sparks Always with the smart remark, your eyes blazin' and blue
But when we needed confidence we always turned to you
And when they shot our leaders up against kilmainham wall
You were there beside us in that awful easter dawn Hey, big fella.....where the hell are you now When we need you the most Hey, big fella.....c'mon Tabhair dom do lÃ©imh
Give me your hand

Back on the streets of dublin when we fought the black and tans
You were there beside us, a towerin' mighty man
And god help the informer or the hated english spy
By jaysus, mick, you'd crucify them without the blinkin' of an eye
Still you had a heart as soft as the early mornin' dew Every widow, whore and orphan could always turn to you
We beat them in the cities and we whipped them in the streets
And the world hailed michael collins, our commander and our chief
And they sent you off to london to negotiate a deal
And to gain us a republic, united, boys, and real

But the women and the drink, mick, they must have got to you
'cause you came back with a country divided up in two We had to turn against you, mick, there was nothin' we could do
'cause we couldn't betray the republic like arthur griffith and you
We fought against each other, two brothers steeped in blood
But i never doubted that your heart was broken in the flood
And though we had to shoot you down in golden bÃ©al na blath
I always knew that ireland lost her greatest son of all
