There can be no one else for me, only you
(No one else will do)
No matter where I look, I see only you
(Only me for you)
Won't you learn to care, my love
So we'll never have to part
Won't you come and share my love
And my life, my soul, my heart

Nobody's arms do I desire
(Desire)
Only yours
(Only yours will do)
And no one's lips set me on fire
(On fire)
Only yours
(Only yours)

If I were blessed to name the sweetest thing I ever knew
It's you, darling only you
Nobody's arms do I desire

Only, only, only yours
And no one's lips set me on fire
Only yours

If were asked to name the sweetest thing I ever knew
It's you, darling only you
