Dear Father
I know You are the Lord
But I need to do a deal with You
And it's nothin' You can't afford

Give me the girl with the bluebird
Tattooed on her breast
Give me the girl with the bluebird
And You can take the rest

I go to heaven
Every time she smiles at me
Over the bar

Dear Father
Don't lay me down no law
'Cause without her
It don't make no sense no more

I just need the girl with the bluebird
Tattooed on her breast
Give me the girl with the bluebird
And You can take the rest
Give me the girl with the bluebird
And You can take the rest
