Starting to want you when I don't want to, lately I find you on my mind. Comin' on slowly, signs all show me something is growing as time goes by. Well you think about me when you're not with me, beginning to miss me when you're alone. Ever so gently you find you want me and it's getting stronger all along.

We're taking our time, it's the slow kind, but we don't mind 'cause there's no hurry. 'Cause it's a sure thing that were falling slowly but surely.

I don't want to rush you by saying I love you, we'll let it happen on it's own and when it does love one thing I'm sure of, it's gonna last us from now on.
