I've spent my life lookin' for you
Finding my way wasn't easy to do
But I knew there was you all the while
And it's been worth every mile

(chorus)

So lay down beside me
Love me and hide me
Kiss all the hurtin' of this world away
Hold me so close
That I feel your heartbeat
And don't ever wander away

Mornings and evenings all were the same

There was no music till I heard your name
But I knew when I saw you smile
Now I can rest for awhile

(chorus)

So lay down beside me
Love me and hide me
Kiss all the hurtin' of this world away
Hold me so close
That I feel your heartbeat
And don't ever wander away
