Now and then, a loser wins gets a winning hand
Now and then, once in a while the angels smile
And someone's life turns out just right
Now and then dreams come true
When someone like me is loved by someone like you

So many times I just couldn't help believing
I'd never find the one to make my life worth living
But now and then miracles still happen
Oh I know they do, 'cause I found you

It'll always be a mystery that in all this world you chose me
It's good to know that now and then
It all turns around and there's really a rainbow's end
Now and then dreams come true
When someone like me is loved by someone like you

So many times I just couldn't help believing
I'd never find the one to make my life worth living
But now and then miracles still happen
Oh I know they do, 'cause I found you

So many times I just couldn't help believing
I'd never find the one to make my life worth living
But now and then miracles still happen
Oh I know they do, 'cause I found you
