Honey when the light's not in your eyes
Just makes me want to cry
Cause I know what's ahead for me and you
Even after all that we've been through

When your eyes don't want to see me
When your arms don't hold me near
When your lips won't speak to soothe me
Cause the light's not shining clear

When your eyes don't want to see me
When your arms don't hold me near
When your lips won't speak to soothe me
Cause the light's not shining clear

I wish I had the magic words to say
So the light would never go away
It's so hard for me to realize
My world is in the light that's in your eyes.
It's so hard for me to realize
It depends upon the light that's in your eyes.
