Amazin' phase, your days, your hazy ways, my blazing
arrow

The rays that range from Asia way to Rio De Janeiro A craze you crave but work today's the day that in a major way

I'll make you say, oh, look he saved the day and also paved the way

Rockin' my crew like razor blades today

And days away from now okay, okay

I'm like a laser ray keepin' the stains away

And dangerous ways rappin' the phrase that pays

All things just ain't a phase but ageless ways a cagey great displays

Yo hey, this ain't a game, so stays awake

'Cause if you came to play you'll all behave insane

After we change the game, it won't remain the same

So make your disc and play this tape in your Camaro

Amazin' phase your days, your hazy ways, my blazing

In my arrow, [Incomprehensible] the narrow

In my arrow, taking the high road

In my arrow, [Incomprehensible] the narrow

In my arrow, taking the high road

The verbal God, I throw a murder all my foe and kill

'em

But learnin all and so I'm growin while I'm learnin' wit

'em

Infernal I'll explode returnin' out the globe about to blow

Now get up out here yo, see head on out the zones that I patrol

Rock and roll might tear you out the soul like blunts and alcohol

I knock your whole toboggan for a loop and now the doubt will flow

I'm not the pro you wanna knock 'cause on the real I got the glow

Cosmic flows as I suppose that's how it's supposed to be and got to go

How'd ya know? Intuition
I was on the old safe surface, think about your purpose, that's impossible
But logic will disturb the thought or focus what it's not is all about The grow about the kind of onus only God can know I rock it for the chocolate, for the awkward, for the thoughtless
In your home or at your office
I'm your early morning coffee so who got the ball?
We roll with Navajos with double barrels Amazin' phase, your days, your hazy ways, my blazing

In my arrow, [Incomprehensible] the narrow
In my arrow, taking the high road
In my arrow, [Incomprehensible] the narrow
In my arrow, taking the high road
