Good, can you sing it faster? I can do anything, here we go and

Neutron, proton, mass defect, lyrical oxidation, yo irrelevant Mass spectrograph, your electron volt, atomic energy erupting As I get all open on betatron, gamma rays thermo cracking Cyclotron and any and every MIC You're on trans iridium, if you're always uranium Molecules, spontaneous combustion, pow

Law of definite proportion, gaining weight I'm every element of brown Lead, gold, tin, iron, platinum, zinc, when I rap you think Iodine nitrate activate Red geranium, the only difference is I transmit sound Balance was unbalanced then you add a little talent

Careful, careful with those ingredients They could explode and blow up if you drop then And may hit the ground Let it flow, yo, just let it go, get back

C-A-O-H-2, wine, water solution of calcium hydroxide Slobbin' it, C-A-O lime will make bleach powder Galvanic metal beats stomp out louder Dried ice, C-0 squared refrigerant N-O-2 makes you laugh, it's laughing gas used by the dentists I nearly added acid glue, I'm like oil of a toil, the king of chemicals

And the G heat gas waved all your mats Chemical change, ice point, melt all your raps Atomic weight, hold shocks, when you call Refillable gas keep going way beyond Biotch I'm only ill with buzzin', feel the ambiance A diabetic process outta calm your ass After I warm your ass, I'll give sodium Silicate N-O-2-S-1-O-3 a water glass Borax flexure full of brimstone sulfur Boraxic acid, hip-hop preserver C-O-2 could never put away the fire Style aroma is scientific the lyrical fuse would be connected To teach you chemical calisthenics

The theory is that all matter is composed Of at least three fundamental particles Protons, electrons, neutrons, Protons charge is positive By now you've guessed electrons are probably negatively charged Neutrons don't follow either, neutral, in the middle, only no apologies

Centered, unmoved by yin and yang ideology Neutron, bomb songs, electron fury Cosmic musical radio-activity Different points in joints within infinity

Oxygen and hydrogen alive within all types of energy Within all types of energy Within all types of energy, within all types of energy Within all types of energy, inside a world, inside a world Inside a universe, inside of me existing although I can't see it

Hydrocarbon, nitrogen cycle, ionization Heavier than electric motor metals that weigh over a ton

This has been a chemist, Blackalicious creation Clean out your desk, put your papers away 'cause class in almost done

This is chemistry plus calisthenics I'm calcium plus potassium, magnesium, newspaper of sodium, sulfate Your solvent, chloroform, remedy from the norm Glycerin, purest form Titanium There is no way out, when this newfy is out Of all arms vibration, forming in a nigga

Some bleachin' to teach ya religious is equal to pieces of meteor Eager to be here or is it, can see here I know all of all I'ma pickin' up pretty little Cindy I'm more I'm thinkin of more, I'm cookin' a potion, cool MotoLyrics.com | Lyrics, music videos, artist biographies, releases and more.
