Roll over Daisy it's a new day
I promised you through night
It'd all be white

So grab your skates your coat your hat your gloves
It's gonna be a cold one
You barely make it down the steps
Your excitement won't fit through the door
Cause it's just you and me girl

Get ready, the fun is melting
I won't lie, we aren't gonna make it
Please don't cry, I didn't want it this way
I won't lie, we're not gonna make it

And that blade became your fall
When it wasn't your way
And you just slipped through my hands
The next part is the hardest

Drop it...

One last look Daisy, baby, drop it
You gotta let it go
We're making angels now
