Seems like a long time
Since the days of you and I
I can't help feeling
Something never really died
And if you feel
Even half the love that I do
Still feel for you
Then we've got what it takes
There'll be no more mistakes

This time
We have all the love that we need
We will succeed
This time
Following our dreams where they lead
I believe we can try
What our hearts left behind
Oh won't it be fine?
This time

I still remember
When we said our last good-byes
Life made us foolish
Maybe time will make us wise
And there's no way
We can lose the love that we found
This time around
Now there's no room for doubt
We can make it work out

This time
We have all the love that we need
We will succeed
This time
Following our dreams where they lead

I believe we can try
What our hearts left behind
Oh won't it be fine?
This time
We have all the love that we need
We will succeed
This time
Following our dreams where they lead
I believe we can try
What our hearts left behind
Oh won't it be fine?
