Do you ever wake up and wonder how your world could change

'Cause feels so strange

Yeah you feel so strange

Do you ever feel like everything you're doing never gets done

Like you're on the run

Like you're on the run

Don't it feel so good to let it go

Forget about everything you know

Do you ever feel like all you do is try and try

But you never get by

I said you never get by

Do ever feel like what you're doing aint what you want

It's just what you've been taught

Just what you've been taught

It's gonna feel so good to let it go

Forget about everything you know

Grab a friend let's come togheter

Times like these should last forever

Laught at me

And I'll laugh too

Cry At Me

And I'll cry with you

Laught at me

And I'll laugh too

Cry At Me

And I'll cry with you

Just to help you through

'Cause it feels so good to let it go

Forget about everything you know

Grab a friend let's come togheter

Times like these should last forever

Feels so good to let it go

Forget about everything you know
Grab a friend let's come together
Times like these should last forever
