"Kissed By The Sun"

No one told me, that one day I'd make history
And nothing could've warned me, that your touch could make me complete
I was cold and alone, till I got lost in your charm
That's when I found me a place to belong; I've been kissed by then sun.

My steady heartbeat increases whenever you touch me
No more lonely, you cured me from that disease
I was cold and alone, till I got lost in your charm
That's when I found me a place to belong; I've been
kissed by the sun

My happy was misplaced
Somewhere in a dark place Till you shined your light on me, I've been kissed by the sun

I used to be damaged
Till you removed the bandage, now I don't hurt no more
One touch of your hand and you light my soul
Take hold of me and don't let go (forever)
Forever and ever babe
I can spend a lifetime with your shine
I was cold and alone, till I got lost in your charm
I found me a place to belong, I was kissed by the sun
I found me a place to belong, by the sun.
