[JD]

I'm so sincere with it I just want you to know
If you can feel it rock back and forth
He' so sincere with it
We just want you to know if you can feel it rock back and forth
I'm so sincere with it I just want you to know
If you can feel it rock back and forth
We so sincere with it we just want you to know
If u can't feel it rock back and forth
Lets go

[Donnell Jones]

Settle down (babe)thinking that I can't let ya talk to me that way
Thinking that ??? the one that could be creeping and taking your place
You don't even know
Where I be, but we argue now
You gon' be here lonely (yea)
'cause she know what I need at night
Can't you, see
Chorus
She wants to(take your place)
She's wanna give me everything that you don't
Don't let her just walk on in
Don't make a (big mistake)
Thinking so caught up I can't let go
You better start (talking)

[Donell Jones]

Tell me why should I
Be here tonight
See you don't wanna
Hurt me but we both know this thing that just aint right
When I go (and I go)
It's gonna be a little too late
To try get back again
When I don't have this feeling no more

Bridge

Now we're not gonna be talking no more (no more)
She'll be the reason I leave you alone
When I feel (some day you'll see when I'm gone)

So right now
You better speak
And give me a reason
Girl can't you see

[Chorus]
She wants to (take your place)
She's wanna give me everything that you don't
Don't let her just walk on in
Don't make a (big mistake)
Thinking I'm so caught up I can't let go (oh)
You better start (talking)

This shit is over (you betta start talking)
Shoulda ended long ago (you better start talking)
But I stayed around thinking that something in your head was not clicking
But I can see that I was all wrong (you betta start talking)
I can't be a fool no more (you betta start talking)
She wants to be that one to give me that love you aint ready for

JD
I go to the club strictly to party and find something to tworck with
I'm the dude that all the girls wanna flirt with Jump up in the booth show me just how they work it
So shorty your window is small to work with
I see it in your eyes but you aint saying nothing
Your girl doing everything trying to push my buttons
Symbolizing us leaving and me cutting
Easy like Tiga' on the green when he puttin'
You betta start talking
Shorty wanna do something
Do something too live to me man
Shorty wanna move something
And you frontin like it aint what it is
Bout to lose all this 'cause u aint handle yo bizz
After two shots of the three
She was all on me
And you seen it but try to play it like a P.I.M.P.
Now I respect that
But sometimes that's a set back
And I really can't see u setting back lettin' that
Be the reason we aint breezin' through the city
Girl you better start talking

Can't you see

[Chorus]

She wants to (take your place)
She's wanna give me everything that you don't
Don't let her just walk on in
Don't make a (big mistake)
Thinking I'm so caught up I can't let go
You better start (talking)
She wants to (take your place)
She's wanna give me everything that you don't
Don't let her just walk on in
Don't make a (big mistake)
Thinking I'm so caught up I can't let go
You better start (talking)

I'm so sincere with it I just want you to know
If you can feel it rock back and forth
He's so sincere with it
We just want you to know
If you can feel it rock back and forth
I'm so sincere with it
If you can feel it rock back and forth
He's so sincere with it
If you can feel it rock back and forth
